

I am currently studying journalism
and I do not believe that the film
Sinclair
Broadcasting intents
to force their
stations to air,
"Stolen Honor:
Wounds That Never
Heal," constitutes
the definition of
news. Furthermore,
their plan to order
their stations to
preempt regular
programming to air
this political
documentary clearly
shows the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to serve the public
interest.
Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
